PROPERTY AND SUPPLIES REPORT

At last month's meeting council denied placing an Autism Child sign by 343 South 2nd Street. Council was against the signage because it was requested by a renter not a property owner and council felt renters come and go. The Borough Secretary contacted the renter to advise what council said regarding placing the signage. The lady that lives in the property explained that the property is owned by her mother in law so the signage would be for the property owner's grandson who lives at the property.
